

SPOT THE DIFFERENCE

Can you spot all five differences between Image A and Image B?

A photograph showing two football players in action. One player, wearing a blue jersey and white shorts, is on the ground, leaning forward with his arms outstretched. The other player, wearing a green jersey with red trim and white shorts, is jumping high into the air, reaching for the ball. The ball is positioned above the player in green. The background is a blurred stadium crowd.

A

A photograph showing two hurling players in action. The player on the left, wearing a white jersey with blue trim and blue shorts, is running towards the camera, holding a hurley. The player on the right, wearing a maroon jersey with white trim and maroon shorts, is running towards the left, also holding a hurley. The ball is visible near the player in white. The background is a blurred stadium crowd.

A

A photograph showing two football players in action, identical to Image A. One player in blue is on the ground, and the other in green is jumping for the ball. The ball is above the player in green. The background is a blurred stadium crowd.

B

A photograph showing two hurling players in action, identical to Image A. The player in white is running towards the camera, and the player in maroon is running towards the left. The ball is near the player in white. The background is a blurred stadium crowd.

Football - 1. White shape behind Mayo player missing in the stand.
2. Number missing from Mayo jersey.
3. Gumshield is a different colour.
4. Red stripe on Dublin player's sock.
5. Mayo player missing in background.

Hurling - 1. Number missing from Waterford jersey.
2. Galway player helmet changed colour.
3. Stripes changed colour on Galway shorts.
4. Micro missing from Waterford helmet.
5. Letter 'l' missing from below hoarding in background.

89